

TRADE
Secrets
SINCE 1930
TALES OF THE TOWN
VISITOR BOOK

The cover features a black and white illustration of a factory with a train and a large swirl of smoke. The word 'TRADE' is in a bold, blocky font, while 'Secrets' is in a red, cursive script. Below it, 'SINCE 1930' is flanked by three stars, and 'TALES OF THE TOWN' is in a smaller, serif font. At the bottom, 'VISITOR BOOK' is in a large, bold, sans-serif font.

Handwritten text in German, including the date "Februar 1834".

Handwritten text in German, including the date "1865".

Handwritten text in German, including the date "1865".

DATE	NAME	COMMENTS
25/09/15	MAY	The Whitehouse was visited by royalty - Queen Victoria's son, Prince Leopold visited and after that Queen Victoria had all her linen posted from there.
		I remember Mrs Miller from Miller's shop. She used to sit in the back office and make wreaths for Remembrance Day. They were beautiful.
		There was a newsagent and the 'Ms Charlton' worked there. They were the opposite to each other - one always wore brown, the other navy. One was short and fat, the other tall & skinny.
		DF Scott - eccentric English character. The rumour was he was descended from royalty. For the New Year dance he would dress up as old Father Time with a beard & uniform.
		The Busker - 'Wee Archie'
"	JOHN.	1952 - I worked in Sam Maxwell's Grocers.
"	LENA	I worked in Roshnough's bakery for 15 years. They had a MILK BAR - very clean, high counter

WINE & SPIRITS

CITY HOTEL
FAMILY & COMMERCIAL
BLACK'S

