Why is this Victorian Resource so special?

- Victorian Coleraine learning materials are specific to the town and are drawn from Coleraine Museum collections.
- These resources meet curricular requirements in areas of learning which include:
 - _ The World Around Us
 - _ The Arts
 - _ Language and Literacy
 - _ Personal Development and Mutual Understanding
- Resources provide structured activities incorporating interactive presentations and games and and printer friendly activity sheets.
- Resources are whiteboard, photocopier, printer friendly and downloadable from www.niarchive.org and www.colerainebc.gov.uk
- Victorian 'Bally –Your - Place' provides simple instructions to guide you in the development of a “local dimension linked to Life in Victorian Times” topic, wherever you live.
