

A Street Through Time

A Journey along the Limavady High Street

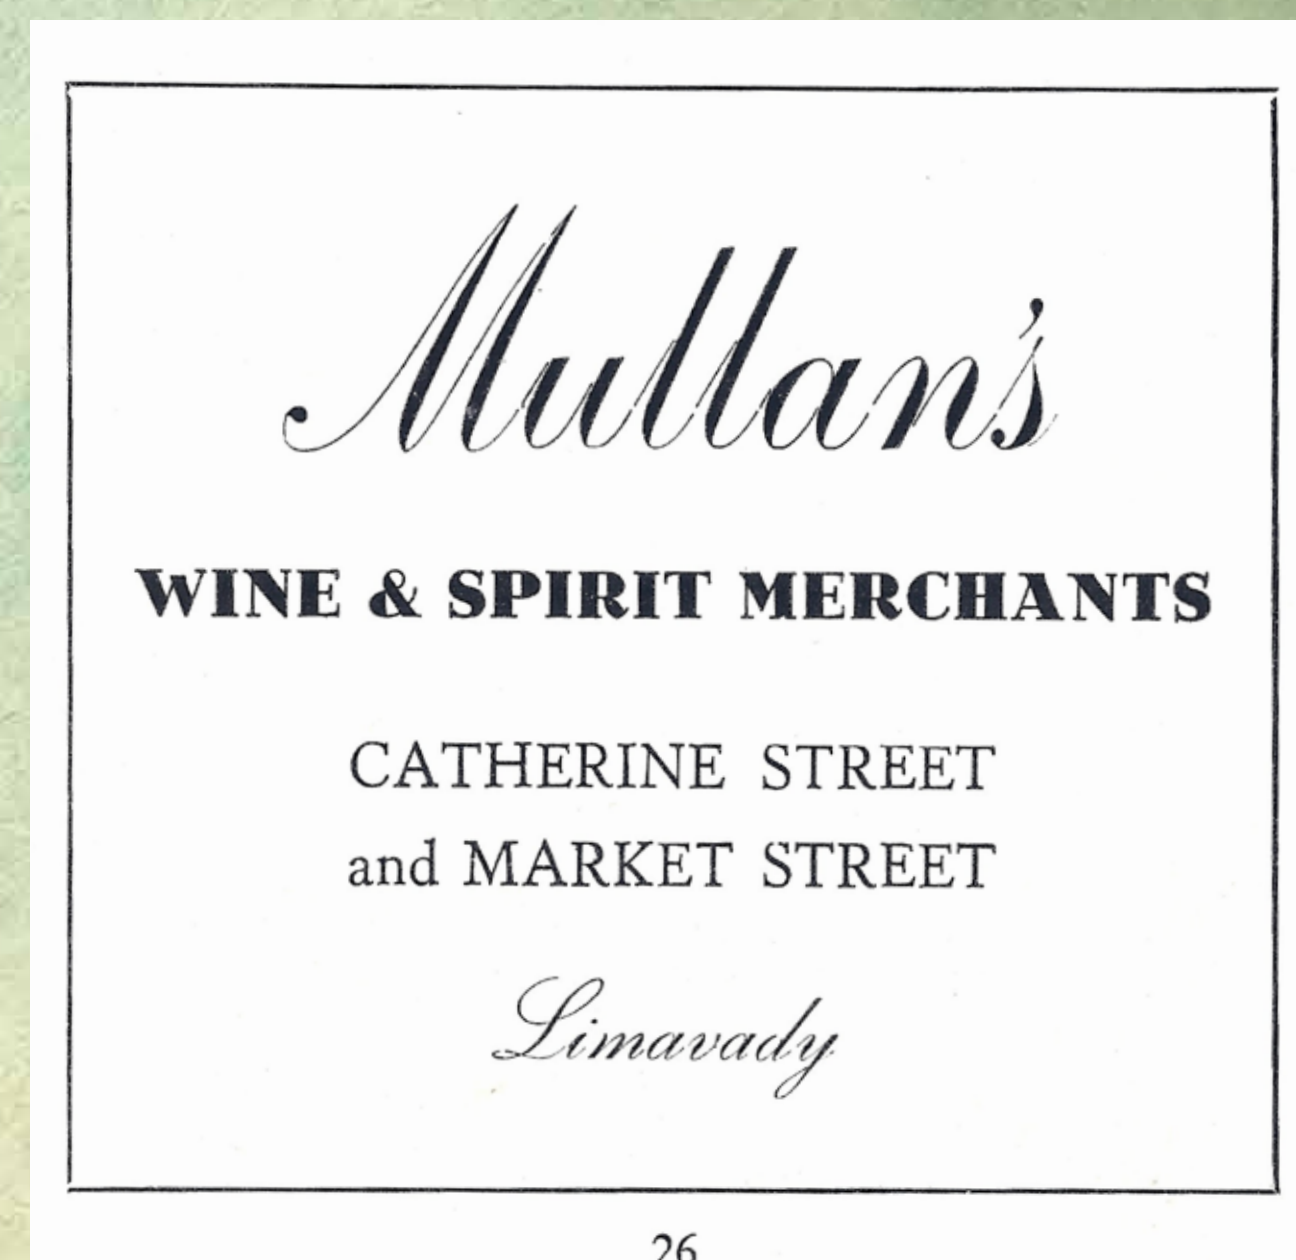

Market Street in 1901

House No.	Occupant	Shop/Occupation
No.4	Francis Coghlan	Clerk
No. 6	Annie Bryce	Manageress of Public House
No. 7	John McCloskey	Provision Merchant
No.9	William James Gallagher	Flesher (Butcher)
No. 10	Frances Shortt	Draper
No. 11	Thomas Morrison	Grocer
No. 12	Samuel Loughery	Merchant Grocer
No. 13	David Jackson Donaghy	Relieving Officer
No. 15	John Mullan	Spirit Dealer
No. 18	Isabella C Douglas	Unemployed
No. 19	James Donegan	Woollen Draper
No. 20	Mary Deens	Shop Assistant
No. 21	Isabella Bryson	Fancy Goods Dealer
No. 22	Thomas McDermott	Caretaker
No.25	Charles Gallagher	Car Proprietor
No. 26	Sarah J McCloskey	Unemployed
No. 34	William Crawford	Clerk of Union
No. 37	Sarah McCloskey	Publican
No. 38	Samuel Bloomfield	Merchant
No. 39	John Brehony	Civil Engineer
No. 40	Samuel Cassidy	Family Grocer and Hardware Merchant
No. 41	Catherine Hegarty	Publican
No. 42	Mary Stevenson	Grocer
No.43	Margaret Hunter	Produce Merchant
No. 44	Mary McCooke	Confectioner

Table compiled from information taken from The National Archives of Ireland, 1901 Census Records.

In the Early 19th Century most of the shopping was done in traditional shops including the local Butchers, Bakers, Grocers and Newsagents.

This was no exception to Limavady as the table left shows in its list of the occupations and businesses within Market Street, Limavady when the 1901 census was taken.

Advertisement printed in the Limavady Official Guide, c.1970 for Mullan's Wine & Spirit Merchants.

S. Cassidy, Grocer and Provision Merchant, 40 Market Street, Limavady.